WASHINGTON

Star Route Matters-Colonel Cook Reclines on Brady.

Washington, 23.—Col. Cook, special star route counsel, in reply to Brady's letter complaining of government detec-tives filling the press with false reports, etc., and the application of Brady's counetc., and the application of Brady's coun-sel for a speedytrial, said: The charges of fraud reach all over the country. They will reach down to Texas; they will travel into New Mexico; will penetrate Oregon; will reach California; and it will become necessary to bring witnesses from all these varied localities in addition to the record evidence. It requires to the record evidence. It requires weeks to do that. None of these wit-nesses can be brought except upon regular and authoritative orders of court. Some of them are reluctant, exceedingly reluctant, if our opinion is correct, so, at the earliest period, it would not be pos-sible for the United States to proceed with the investigation before the latter part of July. It is already out in all the papers that are friendly to General Brady; owned by General Brady—per-haps I do not go too far when I say controiled by General Brady-that he is suspected. I have but one thing further to say-two things-it is not out judicially EXCHANGE, COIN AND BULLION and in regular form of decent administrapected. It may be out that he is be pected, but he is but a citizen of the United States, not above the ordinary and decent administration of pected. It may be out that he is sus law, and as perfectly subjected to those modes of proceeding as the poorest and humblest shoeblack who may walk the streets of the city of Washington. All here are equal. If this proceeding is justifiable it may be demanded by every one who appears in the police court, or every one who, as he passes through the streets, may hear a whisper fall upon his ear: "That fellow did wrong." General Brady is only the equal of the humblest. One thing more and I am, for the present, done. Just as soon as the facts can be collected and as soon as the facts can be collected, and as soon as the order and regulations of this court will permit;

just as soon as the United States, through her proper officers, can accumulate and present in proper order docu-mentary and other evidence which they expect to present to the grand jury, the cases will be pre-sented under the superintendency of your honor The Constitution confers no such right as is now solicited by General

Brady District Attorney Corkhill set forth in his statement that the grand jury had al-ready more work before it than they could finish; that there were alleged criminals in jail awaiting action on their cases, and that Brady's case was not known to the court officially in any way, and that it was therefore impossible to act on it.

Jeremish Wilson, Brady's counsel, pleaded this was not an ordinary case. Brady who stood as high as any man in United States was removed a few months ago from position for the publicly avowed reason that he had been guilty of gross violations of official duty whereby government had been defrauded of large amounts of money. The case has been very conspicuous, made so by the postoffice department, and Brady had been a great sufferer. He closed with an eloquent appeal for his client

Colonel Cook said: If General Brady is acquitted, no one will rejoice more State Savings Association is acquitted, no one will rejoice m. Omaha National Bank than I. Indeed, I may go further. First National Gold Bank any should rejoice more than I, it would be the President, the United States attended to the President, and president torney-general and postmaster-general. DON BANKOF UTAH administration of States and to protect its interest and maintain and perpetuate it in the highest and most exalted purity. They do not desire even the accusation of any one, so earget do they desire it. They do not desire to the grand nestly do they desire it. They do not wish even their presentation to the grand jury until all the facts are importially presented.

The court said: It would be wrong to instruct the grand jury in regard to Gen. Brady's alleged complicity in the frauds. When government is prepared to produce its proofs before the grand jury it will do These newspaper reports complained TY AND SELL STERLING EXCHANGE of are, of course, a great evil, and if General Brady has been wrongly accused, a very great wrong has been done him, and he has his remedy in the courts, but I do not think it is right to force the United States into the investigation prematurely, when government is not prepared, and still more premature into a trial of the party who is accused by public rumor of this evil. Therefore, I do not see proper to give the grand jury any more definite charge than I have stready given.

Cook-I will say there will be no difficulty in the future. We will industriously prepare the case, so that when your honor returns in September, the matter will be before the grand jury in ing on this movement against England not as American citizens, but as Irishmen. I have a document on which there is a seal bigger than your head which debars me from living in the United Kingdom. Do you suppose that any-thing will deter me in exile from doing all I can to secure for Ireland her rights? OESERET NATIONAL BANK England cannot be moved by argument or entreaty; what then must be done? Force must be used. We are not strong enough for open war, and so we must strike unawares until she realizes that it is her interest to be just. You know how I have had little faith in the Land League movement. It is not now any Paid in Capital, - $200.000 Within a week there has been a union of Surplus, - - - $100,000 two physical foreign organizations with a view of making the movement more aggressive than it has been before. This on our operations will be more active than they have been hitherto, and it will be seen that instead of being intimidated by British bluster we are being encour-aged to greater exertions. Recently we have derived valuable assistance from prominent Irishmen in this country who have not before helped us. They have lost faith in their belief in Ireland's relief being recured.
